North Dodecanese Islands

Bodrum/Bodrum (1 week) - Saturday departure - Children from 12 years old

The Dodecanese archipelago in Greece, meaning "twelve islands", located in south-eastern Aegean, consists of twelve large islands with 163 islands and islets, of which only very few are inhabited. These islands endure with legendary buildings like the Herb Market and the Government Palace in Kos, the monastery of St. John in Patmos and the town of Portolago, now called Lakki, in Leros island.

The cruising area is between Kos and Patmos in the northern part and on this route you will find many beautiful beaches and historical places.

The detailed program will be defined upon your embarkation with the Captain according to the weather conditions, your preferences and the logistical needs of the Gulet.

1st day

Embarking from 3.30 pm in Bodrum and accommodation in the cabins. Dinner and overnight stay in harbour. Bodrum has a history that goes back to the 12th century B.C. The city was called 'Halicarnassus' and it was the birthplace of Herodotus; the 'Father of History' who lived in the 5th century B.C. The 'Mausoleum' of King Mausolus (350 B.C.) one of the Seven Wonders of the World is in this city. The only structure that survived from the Classical Era is the Amphitheatre. It is one of the oldest theatres in Anatolia with a capacity of 13.000 guests and it is still hosting many shows and concerts for the art-lovers of Bodrum.

Another place that you should visit when you arrive in Bodrum is the landmark of the city, the 'Castle of Saint Peter'. It is one of the best preserved pieces of architecture with a history dating back to the Middle Ages. 'Myndos Gate' through which Alexander the Great entered Halicarnassus is another place that you should not miss.

2nd day

Following the breakfast, you will familiarize and knowledgeable with the crew, boat and about the cruise. After customs formalities navigation toward Kos island. Asclepion, known to be the birth place of Hippocrates, who is 'the Father of Medical Sciences', is located here. All the people from the east Mediterranean with health problems were treated in Kos. Kos, the second largest island of the Dodecanese Archipelago, has a very mild climate and very fertile lands. The island houses a 560-year-old tree, a 211-year-old fountain and a 290 km long beach. You may take a quick swim in Lambi Beach which is very close to Kos harbor. The city offers also a lively night life at Nafklirou, the street full of bars, always crowded, live atmosphere full of entertainment. Dinner and overnight on board.

It was here that St. John completed the last part of 'The Apocalypse of John', and this is why Patmos is sometimes called 'The Jerusalem of the Aegean'. The Monastery of St. John's towers above the capital, a village called Chora. According to mythology, the island was a present from Zeus to his daughter Artemis, goddess of hunting wildness and protector of young woman. You will have breakfast and a swimming break in a nice bay around the island. Lunch, dinner and overnight stay onboard in the harbour.

5th day

After breakfast departures to Lipsi Island. Ideal for swimming and a relaxation in one of the beautiful bays around the island. On Lipsi Island, there are beautiful sandy beaches, such as Platis and Giolos teeming with crystal green waters. Lunch will be served on board. The capital is surrounded by white painted houses, numerous taverns, cafeterias, restaurants and also a small natural port. The Church of the Catopanaghia, built in the 7th century, is also located in this island along with the Church of Panopanaghia, of the 15th century. Dinner and overnight will be onboard in Lipsi harbour.

6th day

Breakfast is served on board and then you start to sail towards Kalimnos Island, the fourth largest island in the Dodecanese. It is surrounded by quiet islets, some inhabited only by sheep and goats, others with just a few houses and tavernas. The landscape is rocky, its majestic mountain slopes fragrant with thyme, sage and oregano. Kalymnos is best known as home of the world's finest sponge divers. You will spend time swimming in the beautiful bays on the blue clear sea as Massouri, Mirties and Vlyhadia. Lunch is provided onboard.
