Strewn like jewels across the Adriatic, Croatia's islands and cities offer an enticing blend of things to see and do on a private yacht charter.

Day 1

- Trogir

Day 1 (Saturday): Trogir to Brač (Milna) Your cruise will start in Trogir, also called the little brother of Split. The tiny picturesque Trogir is more compact and offers as much history and culture as its big brother. After your check-in, you will sail to Brač. Brač is most known for its outstanding long, pebbly beach called Zlatni Rat (Golden Cape). However, on this cruise, you will head to the pretty fishing village of Milna - called "The Bay of 1000 Ships" by the Venetians - located on the northwest side of Brač. You will set anchor in its calm harbor and enjoy a delicious dinner onboard

Day 2

- Milna

Day 2 (Sunday): Vis Island – Komiža Vis Island is most well-known for its natural wonders – the Blue Cave and the Green Cave. Choose to spend your day exploring Vis or Komiža. Both locations offer great options for fine dining, local beaches that are excellent for families with kids, and many watersports activities, so there's plenty to do. Please note, if you want to tour the magnificent Blue and Green Caves on Vis Island, you will need to inform us in advance so that we can make the necessary arrangements.

Day 3

- Hvar

Day 3 (Monday): Island Hvar and Pakleni Islands
The next stop is a breathtaking destination: Pakleni Islands - a beautiful chain of wooded islands with plenty of gorgeous beaches and utterly magnificent scenery. In the afternoon or evening (according to your preferences), a transfer will be organized for you to visit the city of Hvar. This destination is a popular stop for many megayachts that visit this superb port every year. Here you can enjoy quality luxury restaurants, rich history, and lively nightlife.

Day 4

- Korcula

Day 4 (Tuesday): Korčula Korčula is one of the most breathtakingly beautiful towns imaginable. Explore the maze of its charming historical streets, laid out in a fishbone pattern. This town is known as the birthplace of Marco Polo, and here you will find small themed shops and a museum in his honor, open to visitors. Getting around Korčula is relatively easy, but renting a bike is always an option if you prefer. Beautiful locations and gastronomic delights are offered all over the Old Town center.

Day 5

- Korcula

Day 5 (Wednesday): Pelješac – Lovište After breakfast, you sail to the island of Pelješac that boasts stunning landscapes filled with mountains, sweeping valleys, idyllic coves, and breathtaking beaches. The afternoon is free for individual activities such as sightseeing or swimming. You can book a wine tour or join a guided tour around the town to learn more about its history. In the evening, enjoy dinner with gourmet Dalmatian dishes, and later spend the night in small-town Lovište – situated in one of the most beautiful bays on Pelješac.

Day 6

- Jelsa

Day 6 (Thursday): Island Hvar – Jelsa Your island-hopping adventure next takes you to Jelsa, a small town on the Island of Hvar. Once you arrive at Jelsa, you will appreciate its peaceful atmosphere, dense, fragrant pine forests, and the sound of crickets chirping away under the hot summer sun. This quaint, colorful town full of fascinating streets and little alleyways is a great place to wander around and get lost! Jelsa is an important tourist center, offering many gorgeous bays and beaches. It is also wellknown for its high-quality wines, so booking a wine tour might be an interesting activity to consider.

Day 7

- Trogir

Day 7 (Friday): From Brač to Trogir After an easygoing day at Jelsa, you will depart to Brač, best known for its gorgeous beach Zlatni Rat (the Golden Cape) - an ideal spot for families, swimmers, and windsurfers. Here, you will have more than enough time to enjoy watersports, restaurants, and local shops. In the afternoon, after a day at the beach, you will head back to the yacht and sail to Trogir, spending the last day strolling around the beautiful town

Day 8

- Trogir

Day 8 (Saturday): Check-out The time to say goodbye to your yacht and crew has arrived! After breakfast, check-out is anytime up to 9 a.m. We advise you to confirm check-out logistics and onward planning (e.g. transfer to the airport). We are here to help ensure all transitions are organized and completed smoothly and efficiently.
