

SIMULL

Split Korčula Split

8

SIMULL

Split Korcula Split

Strewn like jewels across the Adriatic, Croatia's islands and cities offer an enticing blend of things to see and do on a private yacht charter.

SIMULL

Day 1

- Day 1: Split - Milna (Brač) Your embarkation is at 17:00 in Split and will sail to the beautiful little fishing town on island Brač called Milna. Milna is typical small fishermen town located on the western side of island Brač– it is ideal place to spend the first night of this 7- day Adriatic cruising adventure. History lovers can find joy in wondering thought the beautiful narrow streets of Milna, with old stone houses all around you or can visit Baroque parish church with typical bell tower.

Day 2

- Day 2: Milna - Hvar Today you will sail to the sunniest island on the Adriatic – island Hvar. On your way to Hvar there is possibility of stopping for a swim on the one of the most beautiful beaches in Europe – Zlatni Rat on the island Brač. Nature is something that will fascinate you on Hvar. From the magical lavender fields filled with enchanting scents, to fascinating vineyards on the south side of the island to the stunning hidden bays and coves on the island chain of Pakleni islands that offer perfect anchoring spots. So, after spending evening in the busy town of Hvar you will be ready to fully enjoy peacefulness of night spent in some hidden bay on Pakleni islands.

Day 3

- Day 3: Hvar-Vis As it will be usual these days, after breakfast served in surrounding of untouched nature you will sail to your next location – island Vis. This magical island is well known to the sailors starting from the ancient times. Many attractions, like sunken boats, can be found in the depths around Vis. This is why Vis will for sure leave you speechless. In the last few years, Vis is mostly known among tourists as the location on which movie Mama Mia: Here We Go Again was filmed in 2017

Day 4

- Day 4: Vis-Korčula Today you will have a few extra hours of sailing in the morning but it will be worth it as you are going to visit town of Korčula on the island with the same name. Korčula is usually known as the birth town of famous explorer Marco Polo. Korčula is a really thrilling town: full of life, full of art, full of history. You can feel this everywhere: behind every little corner and on every little square. We assure you that, after the evening spent in this beautiful little town, you will for sure keep some special memories in your heart for the rest of your life.

Day 5

- Day 5: Korčula - Jelsa Today, after some longer ride from Korčula, you will anchor near the picturesque village of Jelsa. Situated in the middle of the northern side of island Hvar and surrounded with islands highest peaks, Jelsa is very popular touristic location. Nature lovers can visit some of the beautiful local beaches. Jelsa, as being situated in the middle of the island, is also ideal starting point for many excursions: for example: Village of Humac, Grapčeva Cave, Greek Tower of Tor etc. This is why Jelsa Is one of Adriatic must see locations.

Day 6

- Day 6: Jelsa - Pucisca You will leave Jelsa around 9:00 AM just after the breakfast and find another beautiful bay to enjoy your day of relaxation. After lunch spent surrounded with untouched nature and few more hours of sunbathing and water activities, you will sail into stunning deep hidden bay of town Pučišća, picturesque village on northern side of island Brač. Pučišća was recently listed in top 10 most beautiful towns in Europe and this fact only confirms that this little town is one of the undiscovered pearls of the Adriatic.

Day 7

- Day 7: Pucisca - Omis Today you will visit Omiš, charming little town situated on the mouth of river Cetina into the Adriatic Sea. Surrounded with mountains, river and beautiful sandy beaches Omiš combines unique natural ambient with rich cultural heritage. Omiš is also adrenaline paradise. On the long list of activities everyone can find the perfect option for themselves. You can go rafting or canyoning on river Cetina and enjoy untouched nature in its fullness. For those little braver zipline in Cetina canyon is for sure unforgettable experience. Paragliding, free climbing or just ordinary hiking are also available options. Omiš is also famous for it's a cappella singing festival that is held every year in July.

Day 8

- Day 8: Omis-Split On the last day of your charter, you will enjoy a short ride from Omiš to Split, during which the usual breakfast will be served. Your embarkation is at 9:00 AM. We advise you to visit the Split town centre if you have time. This second-largest town in Croatia will leave you speechless by offering a beautiful cocktail of history, culture, excellent food and views. This 1700-year-old town is one of the most seen locations in Croatia. Wander through the old stone streets, visit the palace and basements of Roman emperor Diocletian, climb the Marjan hill for studying view or just sit on the sea promenade and enjoy your coffee or lunch. In Split, there is something for everybody.

SIMULL

Split Korcula Split
