Palamutbuku-Bodrum

Sail seven days from Bodrum to Hisaronu & back! Explore ancient ruins, indulge in Turkish cuisine, & revel in idyllic bays. Unforgettable Aegean magic!"

Day 1

- Bodrum Marina is located in the heart of Bodrum, known for its beautiful beaches, rich history, and lively nightlife. This luxury marina offers a prime location to explore the beautiful Aegean coast of Turkey, with easy access to the Greek islands. The marina offers top-notch amenities and services for yacht charters, including a spa, fitness centre, and gourmet restaurants.

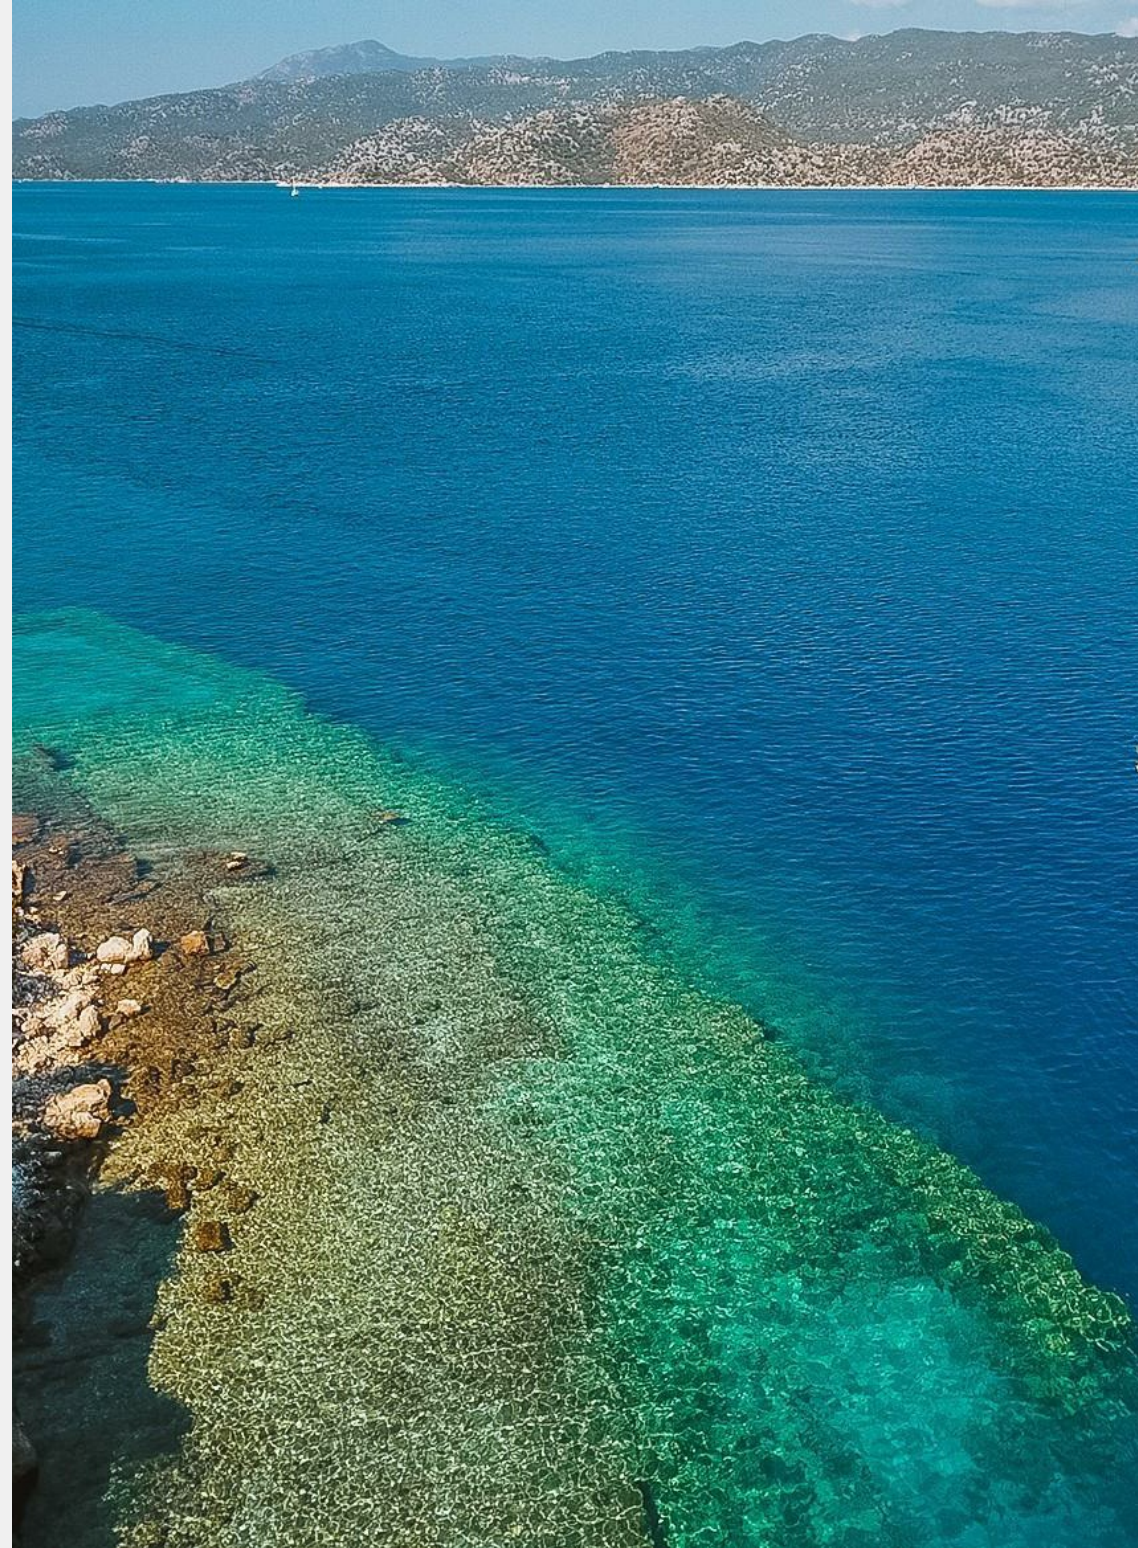

Day 2

- Knidos, located at the meeting point of the Aegean and the Mediterranean, is a historic yacht charter port on Turkey's Datça Peninsula. Though the port offers only basic facilities, it more than makes up for it with its rich archaeological sites and panoramic sea views. Known for its ancient ruins, including a temple dedicated to Aphrodite, Knidos is a unique blend of history and natural beauty. As you set sail from Knidos, you're delving into a fascinating world where ancient civilizations meet the irresistible allure of the Turkish coastline.

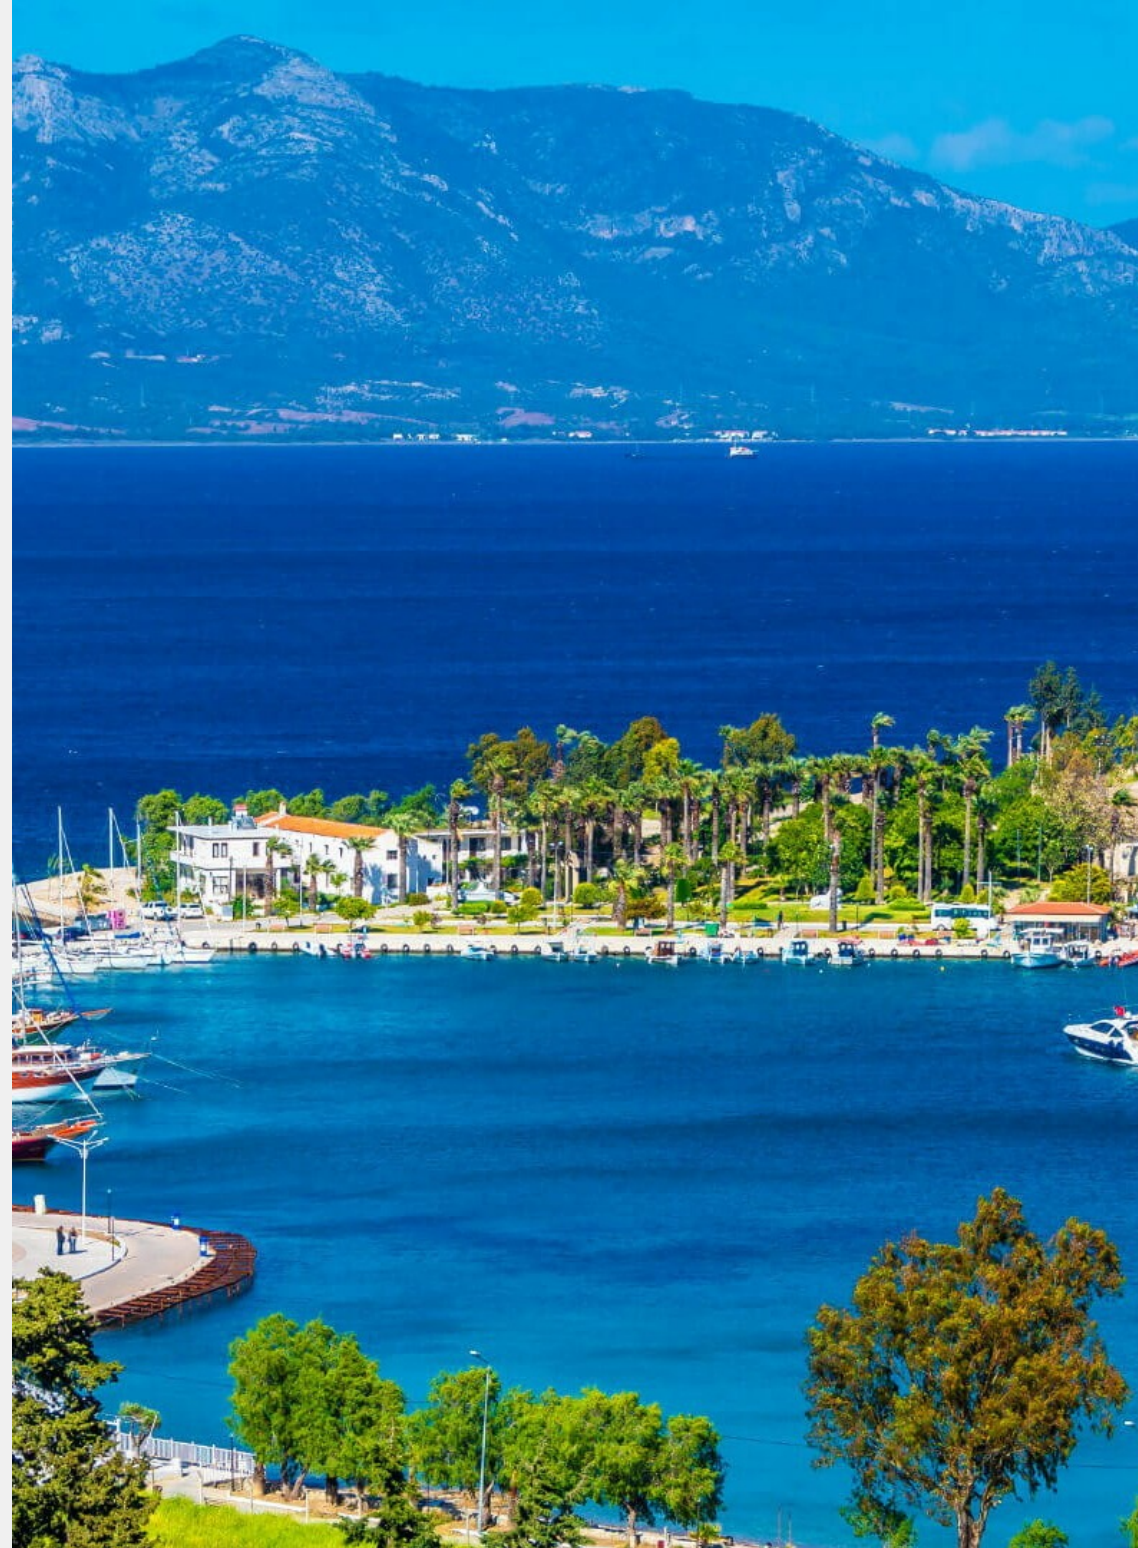

Day 3

- Domuz Buku, often referred to as 'Pig Bay,' is a secluded yacht charter port located near Marmaris on the southwestern coast of Turkey. While it lacks formal marina facilities, this natural bay provides an idyllic anchorage for yachts looking for a quieter, more authentic experience. Known for its crystalline waters and pine-covered hills, Domuz Buku is a haven for those seeking tranquility and natural beauty. When you set sail from Domuz Buku, you're embarking on an Aegean odyssey that promises the unspoiled landscapes, serene coves, and the endless blue of the Turkish Riviera.

Day 4

- Datca is a beautiful coastal town located on the Datca Peninsula in Turkey. It is known for its stunning beaches, crystal-clear waters, and serene atmosphere. It is a popular yacht charter destination for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle of city life.

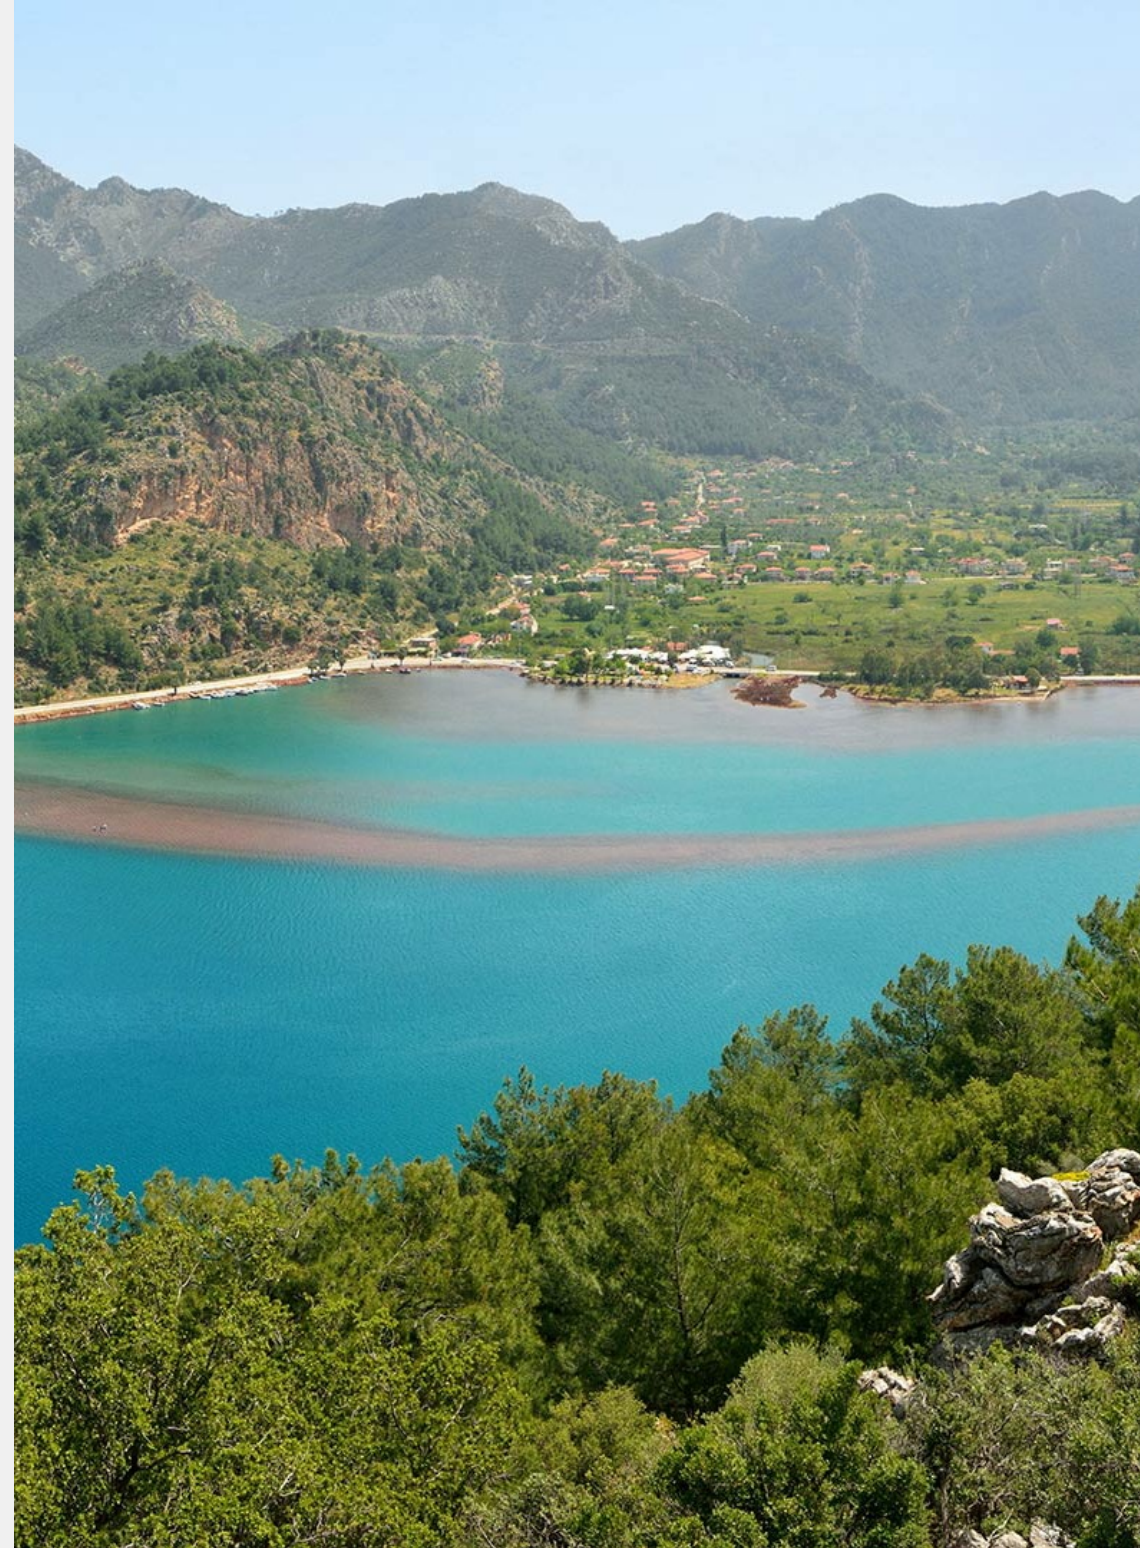

Day 5

- Aktur, a serene bay located between Datça and Knidos on Turkey's southwestern coast, serves as a tranquil yacht charter port. While the bay lacks extensive marina facilities, its natural harbor offers essential amenities for a peaceful and intimate sailing experience. Aktur is famed for its crystal-clear waters, pine-clad hills, and its seclusion offers a quiet escape from the tourist crowds. Setting sail from Aktur allows you to experience the best of the Turkish Riviera, from its untouched landscapes to the azure waters of the Aegean Sea.

Day 6

- Orhaniye is a secluded bay located on the southwest coast of Turkey, known for its pristine waters and stunning natural beauty. The bay is surrounded by beautiful pine forests, and there are plenty of secluded beaches and coves to explore.

Day 7

- Palamutbuku, located near the tip of Turkey's Datça Peninsula, is a charming yacht charter port renowned for its crystal-clear waters and long pebble beaches. Though the port is on the smaller side, it offers essential amenities and a serene atmosphere, ideal for those looking to escape the crowds. Palamutbuku is a hidden gem on the Turkish Riviera, offering an idyllic setting for swimming, sunbathing, and local dining. When you set sail from Palamutbuku, you're stepping into a pristine corner of the Aegean, ready to explore its secluded coves and stunning coastlines.

Day 8

- Bodrum Marina is located in the heart of Bodrum, known for its beautiful beaches, rich history, and lively nightlife. This luxury marina offers a prime location to explore the beautiful Aegean coast of Turkey, with easy access to the Greek islands. The marina offers top-notch amenities and services for yacht charters, including a spa, fitness centre, and gourmet restaurants.
