Set sail from Bodrum on a loop through the Northern Dodecanese islands. Experience a fusion of Turkish and Greek cultures, and explore stunning landscapes. A perfect blend of relaxation and adventure.

Day 1

- Bodrum Marina is located in the heart of Bodrum, known for its beautiful beaches, rich history, and lively nightlife. This luxury marina offers a prime location to explore the beautiful Aegean coast of Turkey, with easy access to the Greek islands. The marina offers top-notch amenities and services for yacht charters, including a spa, fitness centre, and gourmet restaurants.

Day 2

- Kos, nestled in the crystal-clear waters of the Aegean Sea, is an enchanting blend of history, charm, and natural beauty. As a pivotal yacht charter port in Greece, it serves as a gateway to the Dodecanese islands. The town boasts an ancient harbour that whispers tales of its rich past while offering modern facilities for the discerning sailor. From ancient Greek ruins to golden sandy beaches and delightful tavernas serving local delicacies, Kos invites you to indulge in the quintessential Greek island experience.

Day 3

- Leros is a tranquil and lesser-known Greek island in the Dodecanese group. It offers a serene retreat with charming villages, pristine beaches, and a rich history. The island's main town, Agia Marina, welcomes visitors with pastel-colored buildings and a leisurely atmosphere. Leros' heart lies in its traditional villages, where narrow streets wind through bougainvillea-adorned homes and local tavernas offer a taste of Greek culture. History buffs can explore the Castle of Pandeli and World War II museums. Leros' coastline features various beaches, each with its own allure, from golden sands to calm waters. Hiking trails lead to hidden valleys and panoramic views. Leros is a place to escape the rush of modern life, connect with Greek tradition, and embrace a slower pace that leaves a lasting impression.

Day 4

- Located in the Dodecanese, Patmos is a small island known for its historic monastery, charming white-washed houses, and beautiful beaches. Visitors can explore the island's many churches and chapels, or relax at one of the many seaside tavernas.

Day 5

- Lipsi is a hidden gem in the Dodecanese, known for its tranquil atmosphere and unspoiled beauty. The island offers secluded beaches, crystal-clear waters, and a charming harbour village. Ideal for those looking to escape the crowds and reconnect with nature.

Day 6

- Kalymnos is a captivating Greek island located in the southeastern Aegean Sea, part of the Dodecanese group. Known for its dramatic landscapes, world-class rock climbing, and maritime heritage, Kalymnos offers a unique blend of adventure and relaxation. The island boasts rugged cliffs, beautiful beaches, traditional villages, and a rich history, making it an appealing destination for outdoor enthusiasts and cultural explorers alike.

Day 7

- Akvaryum (Aquarium Bay) in Bodrum is a natural aquarium renowned for its crystal-clear turquoise waters, making it a paradise for snorkelling and swimming. Sheltered by surrounding hills, it's a perfect stop for a peaceful day at sea, where you can explore vibrant marine life in tranquil settings.

Day 8

- It is time to say farewell to the crew and leave the boat with happy memories after breakfast.
