Explore the beautiful nature and crystal clear water of Gokova Gulf and have unforgettable moments...

Day 1

- Bodrum Marina is located in the heart of Bodrum, known for its beautiful beaches, rich history, and lively nightlife. This luxury marina offers a prime location to explore the beautiful Aegean coast of Turkey, with easy access to the Greek islands. The marina offers top-notch amenities and services for yacht charters, including a spa, fitness centre, and gourmet restaurants.

Day 2

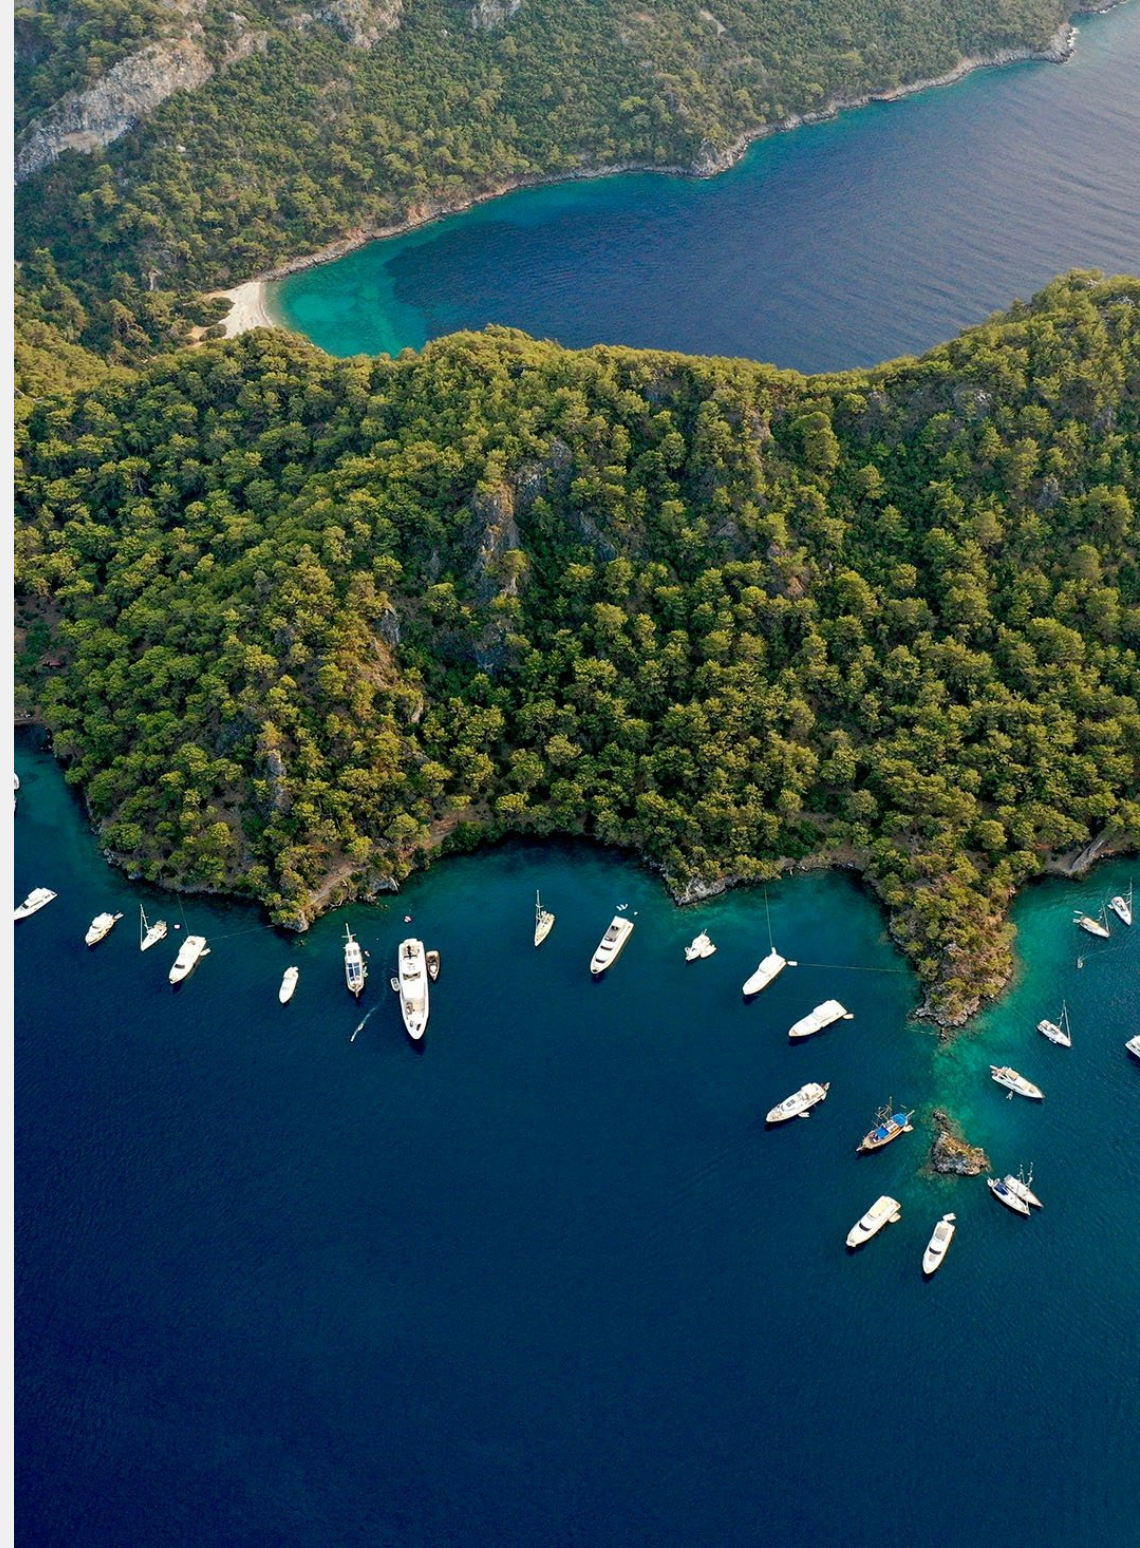

- Orak Island, a hidden gem off the coast of Bodrum in Turkey, is a serene yacht charter destination known for its crystal-clear waters and peaceful atmosphere. This small, uninhabited island is a haven for those seeking to escape the hustle and bustle of more crowded tourist spots. Orak Island's secluded coves and vibrant marine life make it ideal for swimming, snorkeling, and simply relaxing in the beauty of the Aegean Sea. With its pristine natural environment, Orak Island offers a tranquil retreat for sailors and nature enthusiasts alike.

Cokertme, a charming coastal village along the Gulf of Gökova in Turkey, is a beloved yacht charter destination known for its picturesque scenery and warm hospitality. This idyllic bay, surrounded by rolling hills and pine forests, offers a tranquil refuge and a true taste of Turkish coastal life. The village itself, with its quaint restaurants and cafes, invites visitors to experience local flavors and traditions. Cokertme's sheltered bay provides a safe and serene anchorage, ideal for those looking to relax and soak in the natural beauty of the Aegean region.

Day 4

- Tuzla, or the 'Seven Islands' area, located in the Gulf of Gökova in Turkey, is a captivating yacht charter destination that boasts a series of small, unspoiled islands and secluded bays. This serene locale is known for its clear, turquoise waters and is ideal for those who seek a peaceful retreat amidst natural beauty. The Seven Islands offer a perfect setting for swimming, snorkeling, and exploration, with each island presenting its unique charm and tranquil coves. Tuzla's unspoiled environment, away from the hustle of tourist hotspots, makes it an ideal anchorage for sailors who cherish tranquility and a connection with nature.

Day 5

- English Harbour, locally known as 'Ingiliz Limanı', nestled in the Gulf of Fethiye on Turkey's southwestern coast, is a renowned yacht charter destination steeped in history and natural beauty. This secluded bay, once a hideaway for British naval ships during World War II, now offers a serene and sheltered anchorage for modern sailors. Surrounded by pine-clad hills and crystal-clear waters, English Harbour is perfect for swimming, snorkeling, and enjoying the picturesque scenery. The bay's calm environment and its historical significance provide a unique and tranquil setting for yachtsmen seeking both relaxation and a glimpse into the past.

Kissebükü, also known as Kisebuku or Kisse Buku, is a tranquil anchorage located on the Bodrum Peninsula in Turkey. This secluded bay, rich in history and natural beauty, is known for its ancient Byzantine monastic ruins that are partially submerged in the sea, offering a unique blend of culture and natural splendor. The bay's clear, calm waters are ideal for swimming and snorkeling, while the surrounding pine forests provide a serene backdrop perfect for relaxation and exploration. Kissebükü's quiet charm and unspoiled environment make it a favorite anchorage spot for sailors seeking a peaceful retreat in the Aegean Sea.

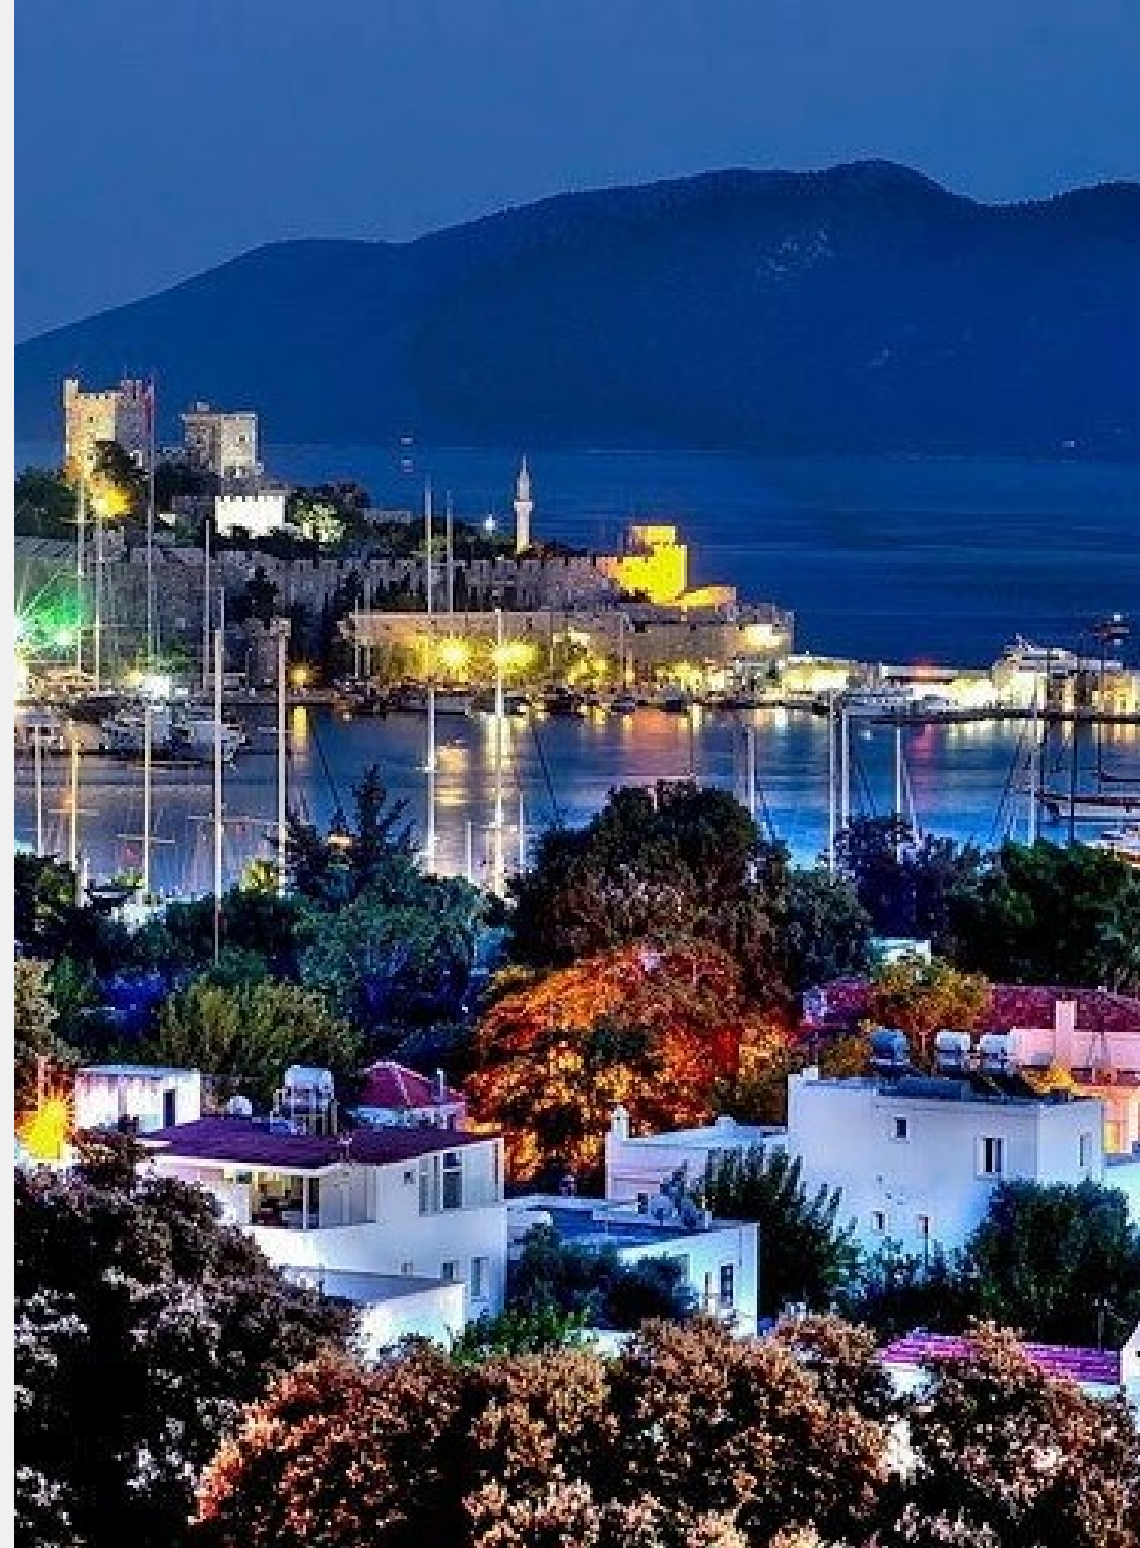

Day 7

- As our seafaring adventure draws to a close, the final night in Bodrum unfolds with an air of enchantment. The moon casts its gentle glow upon the Bodrum Castle, standing sentinel over the glimmering marina. Revel in the magic of the coastal town's lively ambiance, where seafront restaurants offer a delectable finale to your journey. Whether strolling the bustling bazaar or savoring a farewell dinner with the Aegean as your backdrop, Bodrum's allure ensures that the memories forged at sea linger long after the voyage concludes.

Day 8

- Following a delightful breakfast, disembarkation in Bodrum marks the end of your nautical adventure. Take with you the echoes of the sea, the tales of coastal towns, and the warmth of the Mediterranean sun. Until our paths cross again, safe travels and may your memories of the open waters linger like a gentle sea breeze.
